

PRIVACY POLICY

Last update: June 2018

Jungle Fever Official is very discrete with your registration details. All your personal details will be kept in our own administration and will never be given to third parties, unless you give us permission to do so. If you have ordered items, your shipping address will be given to the distributor (PostNL) as they need to know where to deliver the package.

Who is the data controller for the processing of your data?

The data controller for the processing of the data is Jungle Fever Official.

The contact details are as follow: info@junglefeverofficial.com

For which purpose do we process your personal data?

The personal data of the interested party shall be processed for the following purpose, as applicable:

- To manage and execute online purchasing. We use the personal information of the customer to process and deliver their order(s), and inform them by e-mail of the status of their order(s).
- To manage and send information on exclusive promotions, latest news and personalised information adapted to the profile, interests and needs of the interested party as a customer via e-mail or ordinary mail. The sending of this information will involve the drafting of user profiles, which consists of using the personal data, the history of their purchases, if applicable, and the browsing information on the website to evaluate certain aspects related to their personal preferences, in order to offer them commercial notifications adapted to their profile.

How does Jungle Fever Official protect personal data?

The website uses data security technologies such as firewalls, access control procedures and cryptographic mechanisms to prevent any unauthorised access to data and guarantee data confidentiality. To achieve these aims, the user agrees that Jungle Fever Official will obtain data for the purpose of the corresponding authentication of access controls.

In addition, any transaction performed via the website will be executed via secure payment systems. The confidential data are transmitted directly and in an encrypted manner (SSL) to the corresponding entity. Jungle Fever Official declares that it has adopted all the technical and organisational measures necessary to guarantee the security and integrity of the personal data it processes, and to prevent the loss, alteration and/or access of the same by unauthorised third parties.
